Eva Longoria

People en Español and People magazines have named her one of Hollywood's most beautiful women; nonetheless, Eva Longoria is a blend of both beauty and brains. Shortly after receiving her first college degree, she was crowned Miss Corpus Christi USA. It was not long after earning that pageant title she made her way to Hollywood. She has starred in roles on popular shows like The Young and the Restless and Desperate Housewives. After her success on those shows, she returned to school once again and earned her master's degree in Chicano Studies from California State University, Northridge (CSUN) in May 2013.
